Capuzzi Double Bass Concerto, 1st mvt with guest soloist Emory Macomber

Emory Macomber (twelve years old from Topsham, Maine), began his bass studies with his father Zack at age five. In 2021, he started lessons with Brian Thacker, interim principal bassist for the Louisville Orchestra. He has thrived under Brian's clear and concise tutelage, and looks forward to his lessons every week. He enjoys playing his bass for the Lord at Midcoast Baptist Church in Brunswick, working with Nate Martin at the Envision Chamber Music Workshop in Rockland, being mentored by William Blossom at the Meetinghouse Arts Strings Collaborative in Freeport, and playing his bass for the local farmer's market and nursing home. He is an enthusiastic player and loves music!
